Koenigsberg Mennonite Church Record

This record could not have been made available to researchers without the kind help and support of the following persons:

Peggy Goertzen, Center for Mennonite Brethren Studies, Tabor College, Hillsboro, Kansas.

Mrs. Goertzen made the photocopy of the microfilm roll containing the original Koenigsberg Church Record, helped to formulate the project, and gave encouragement for its completion.

Mrs. Mary Rempel, Hesston, Kansas, who so carefully and diligently made the transcription and translation of the record from the photocopies.

The Church Council

Notice

Danzig is to observe Communion on the 13th Sunday, and is to issue a notice to this effect.

Notice

To those church members who have received punishment from the church, with the date of exclusion and brief remarks regarding the reason for them having received this punishment.

1. On October 18, 1822 Hermann Penner, because of offending the Elder Honor. Abr. Regier from Gurcken, Heubuden Church, was, according to usual custom, with singing and religious speech, excluded from the church, which can be examined further in the church record.

Note: however, if he acknowledges that the offense is one of overhastiness, not one to call for kneebending in the presence of two witnesses in a closed room from this church and another. Since it was not because of an addiction, but rather for personal satisfaction, the Heubuden Church had to make the decision to exclude him.

2. On March 6, 1825 Hanns Tieszen, due to quarreling with and beating his brother-in-law, with agitation by his sister and her husband, to whom he made unnatural visits, causing strife; because of which the Cornelius Thieszen couple is 3. investigating legal divorce.

as well as the previous behavior of --- Kroecker from Cabian, who for 20 to 30 years has absented himself from the church, and is pursuing a bad lifestyle, 2 years ago managed to get a disputed amount of 4000f. Both Hanns Tieszen and --- Kroecker, together with added (testimony) from the brothers, were excluded from the church. Hann Tieszen is not allowed to return, since he served under the Green H?? in Schlessien several weeks, and due to insubordination was deprived of his soldier status, and the Province was to advise him. (He converted to a different religion.)

4. On August 26, 1825, the Cornelius Thieszen couple was excommunicated from the church because of divorce; although she was innocent, because of their mutual stubbornness they were divorced, namely.

5. The following day Cornelius and Agnes Tieszen nee Tieszen his wife were informed by Chairman Hermann Wientz and Heinrich Howenehr of the church's decision. On March 8, 1826, Mrs. Agnes Tieszen demanded that I give her a separation certificate so that she could join another religion.

Note: Cornelius Tieszen, excommunicated from the church due to marital discord and legalized divorce, because of his remorse and following church discipline, was duly and ceremoniously received back into the church on May 4, 1826.

6. On May 12, 1826, Mrs. Maria Foht was excommunicated from the church because of an illegitimate birth in January, the notice of which was brought to her by Mr. Hermann Wientz and Mr. Gerhard v. Roy.

Note: On March 15, 1829 she was again received into the church.

7. Franz Bergen, in order to marry outside the church, left with a certificate on July 10, 1826.

8. On March 22, 1829 Miss Margarethe Warkentien, who had been working at the home of Rev. Heinrich Claaszen, was notified by Mr. Joh. Penner jun. and Mr. Abr. Kauerhowen, that she had been excommunicated from the church because she was pregnant ("in other circumstances").

9. On August 22, 1831, Eduard Wiebe, because of his consistent disorderly lifestyle and in particular, because of his participation in a civil revolt on July 28, 1831, when with knife in hand, he had threatened an antiscarist and was restrained from behind and his weapon taken away, then taken to prison in Tapian to be punished by the court, was excommunicated from the church, with the notice never to be received again because that would bring shame on the Mennonite Church.

On Sept. 15, 1831 he was given his separation certificate.

Punishment publ. on Jan. 16, 1832: Confiscation of his property, 1 year prison sentence and loss of national certificate (citizenship?).

10. Merchant Peter Pennere jun. transfer certificate to a different church January 23, 1832, in order to be able to join the military (came without condition because of faithfulness?).

News Surrounding the 100th Jubilee of the Church

On the last Sunday of the year (namely December 28, 1823) the Koenigsberg Mennonite Church celebrated its one-hundred-year anniversary of conducting free and open worship, protected by the state. The first Mennonites who settled here, only landholders, could meet only in scattered places, like scattered sheep without shepherds and leaders, as well as teachers and preachers, built themselves up into a congregation. They delegated the pious members, Mr. Joh. Peter Sprunck, Mr. Jacob Schroeder, Mr. Isaai Kroecker to present a written request to His Majesty Friedrich Wilhelm the First. Later they received a notice, on April 2, 1722, Discretionary (?) Privilege, stating that they would not only be tolerated in the kingdom, but could also build a private house of worship in Koenigsberg for worshipping freely under the protection of the rulers. If the church here began by means of these privileges, it is assumed that renting a house or a hall, and electing a religious teacher by the year 1723 could be taken for granted.

Since no information could be found regarding on which Sunday they held their first public worship service and dedicated the church, the last Sunday of the jubilee year 1823 was regarded as such and celebrated in a worthy manner with heartfelt participation.

On the day preceding the hundred-year public God-honoring worship, the church was notified of the same, and not earlier because it was not to be generally publicized among other curious religious relatives outside church members, so as not to crowd them out, which might result in disturbance. This was accomplished and the inner room of the church was filled. Church members were in the church at 10 minutes after 9 o'clock, and the service began with the singing of the hymn from the Danzig Hymnal, which we were using, No. 159, "Great God, full of Majesty." Before the singing of the last verse the church leadership, according to custom, came into the church, but I, who was preaching, took my place in front of the communion table, and following the final verse, offered David's prayer, and at its conclusion announced the theme song, No. 509, "Praise, Honor and Laud the Highest Good." I went to the usual preaching spot and after the hymn had been sung, began my prepared sermon, in which I spoke about the great importance and the true worth of open and communal worship of God. After the sermon the first verse of Hymn No. 520 was sung: "Our God, the God of Honor," and the hymn No. 513, "Now Thank we all our God" closed the day's festivity begun with the gratitude of every Mennonite. It is worth noting that the introduction to the sermon was taken from Psalm 84, v 2 & 3 and the text from Exodus 20, v. 24. In my sermon I mentioned all the Elders and Teachers, who in the past 100 years had held the office of Evangelical Mennonite Teacher in this church; may the object of my sermon be realized by the church members, and the Lord bless the efforts of his servant in building up of the church members, and fulfill the words in 1. Kings 8, v. 57. — The church leadership consisted of 1 elder, 4 teachers, 2 leaders, namely Joh. Penner, Heinrich Penner, Isaac Wiens, Heinr. Claaszen, Abr. Penner, Bern. Wiehler .... (illegible)

Continuation of Church Leadership, with interesting changes.

On Nov. 14, 1824, the newly installed organ was dedicated with the text Math. 5,? and the singing of Hymn No. 159, "Great God, full of Power," after which the organ was dedicated. With the singing of the 1st and 7th verses, the first organ accompaniment began, with my son Cornelius Penner playing.

On June 5, 1825, the pulpit and communion table were dedicated to their intended use; from that time until now in the same place, both draped with a green cloth.

Abraham Claaszen was asked on March 24, 1829, as can be seen on Page 363, according to the wish of the church leadership and membership, to retake his former position, which he had earlier accepted, but under pressure from church leadership resigned until his home situation would change. He asked for time until fall to discern whether or not he should take the position again. Since we did not want to continue with this indecision any longer, much rather have a new election, he was given 8 days to decide together with his wife and announce his decision. On March 31, 1829, in the company of the church leadership and 2 church members he declared himself willing to accept the position of Teacher in fall. Since that time, when he accepted the position of Teacher, he has been acknowledged as such.

Joh. Penner sen.

Note: On Nov. 29, 1829, the first Sunday of Advent, the above-mentioned preached his first sermon on 1 Cor. 4, v. 1-5, which turned out well, above all expectations. May the Highest make him and us more and more capable in this ? ? .

Mr. Gerhard von Roy was elected leader on Dec. 27, 1831; works in construction.
Note: Mr. Van Roy moved to Danzig and resigned from his position on October 4, 1832.

Mr. Herrmann Warkentien was elected as first leader of the church on November 4, 1832. He is working in construction. The same was elected as preacher on _____ and is conducting his position with (integrity?).

Mr. Abr. Tieszen was elected leader of the church on _____. He works in construction.

Preacher candidate Carl Harder delivered his first sermon as Religion Teacher on May 11, 1845, the first day of Pentecost. On April 20 and 27, 1845, he was nominated as preacher of this church and was duly installed. On April 27 '45 it was decided, by means of volunteer contributions, to give him an annual allowance of 300 rttt for a term of 3 years, that is from Michael's 1845 to Michael's 1848, discussed orally with Mr. Warkentin, but nothing in writing, also that the money designated for him be kept in an account and given to him so that during his term of office he need not worry. For the rest God will provide.
