

Assistant Professor of History

Tabor College seeks a candidate whose primary responsibility will include teaching undergraduate US history. The ideal candidate will also be able to teach selected European and non-Western history or political science. Other responsibilities include advising, recruiting, committee service and additional duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

- PhD in history preferred; ABD considered.
- Commitment to teaching, scholarly research, and service in the context of a Christian liberal arts college is essential.
- A creative approach to innovation and program development highly desired.

Rank/Salary

Commensurate with faculty salary schedule.

Beginning Date:

August 2019.

Candidates are requested to submit the following:

- Letter of application
- Current curriculum vitae
- Transcripts (unofficial accepted for initial review)
- List of 3-5 references that can be contacted if necessary

Send application materials via email (preferred) to facultysearch@tabor.edu or by mail to:

Tabor College
History Faculty Search Committee
400 S. Jefferson
Hillsboro, KS 67063

Closing Date:

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Tabor College is a Christian liberal arts institution with a mission to prepare people for a life of learning, work, and service for Christ and his kingdom. The successful candidate must readily embrace the mission (see <http://tabor.edu/about/mission-vision-values/>) and theological identity of Tabor College (<https://tabor.edu/about/theological-identity/>).

Women and Minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Tabor College is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. As an educational institution operating under the auspices of the United States Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches, Tabor College is permitted, and reserves the right, to prefer employees on the basis of Religion (Title VII, Section 702-703, United States Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended).