

Professor of Biblical Studies (rank open)

Tabor College announces a faculty opening for a Professor of Biblical Studies (rank open). The preferred candidate will primarily teach undergraduate biblical and religious studies courses covering both the Old and New Testaments, but the teaching assignment could also include graduate courses in theology or ministry. Other responsibilities include a scholarly agenda, vocational mentoring, academic advising, recruiting, committee service, and additional duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

Ph.D. required (those with an ABD are welcome to apply).

Active member of the Evangelical Theological Society.

Commitment to teaching and service in the context of a Christian liberal arts college is essential.

A creative approach to innovation and program development highly desired.

Rank/Salary

Commensurate with faculty salary schedule.

Beginning Date:

August 2021.

Candidates are requested to submit the following:

Letter of application

Current curriculum vitae

Transcripts (unofficial accepted for initial review)

List of 3-5 references that can be contacted if necessary

Send application materials via email to facultysearch@tabor.edu.

Closing Date:

Review of applications will begin immediately and proceed until conclusion of search process.

Tabor College is a Christian liberal arts institution with a mission to prepare people for a life of learning, work, and service for Christ and his kingdom. The successful candidate must readily embrace the mission (see <http://tabor.edu/about/mission-vision-values/>) and theological identity of Tabor College (<https://tabor.edu/about/theological-identity/>).

Women and Minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Tabor College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. As an educational institution operating under the auspices of the United States Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches, Tabor College is permitted, and reserves the right, to prefer employees on the basis of Religion (Title VII, Section 702-703, United States Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended).