

DR. WILMER A. HARMS
ANABAPTISM CONTEST

Center for Mennonite Brethren Studies, Tabor College

2022

Submission Form

Any submission for the Dr. Wilmer A. Harms Anabaptism Contest must come from a full-time undergraduate student of Tabor College. Submissions may include essays, poetry, works of art, or other media. They may be adaptations of work submitted for college courses. Essay submissions should include a scholarly reflection that is a minimum of 1200 and a maximum of 3000 words in length. Other media should include an abstract explanation of 300 to 500 words.

Topics expressing Anabaptist witness might include but are not limited to issues of culture and society, war, poverty, violence and justice. Special consideration will be given to those who do primary source research, notably concerning former Tabor College president P.C. Hiebert and the peace witness during World War I.

Submissions are due to the Director of CMBS, Peggy Goertzen (peggyg@tabor.edu) by April 25, 2022. The top three submissions will be invited to present their work at a spring event, open to the public, at which time a panel of judges will consider the presentations and announce prizes. Prizes will be awarded for submissions that are especially well-crafted, creative, and Anabaptist-focused. The prizes will be: first place $300, second place $200, and third place $100. These will be awarded at the discretion of the panel of judges.

By submitting material for consideration in the Dr. Wilmer A. Harms Anabaptism Contest, you represent that your submission is an original work and that you own the copyright rights to the submission. You further agree that, while you will retain ownership of the copyright, you grant CMBS a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable right and license, for no additional consideration, to use, copy, reproduce, and distribute the submission, in whole or in part, in CMBS publications and promotional materials.

By signing this document, you acknowledge that you understand and meet all of the above requirements for submission to the contest.
