

Adjunct Instructor for Computer Science

The department of science and mathematics at Tabor College invites applications for a part-time adjunct instructor in computer science. The successful candidate will teach on campus (Hillsboro, KS) or online courses including Computer Programming 1 and 2. The instructor is expected to (1) provide each student with clear course expectations, evaluations and timelines through carefully written topical outlines and approved, standardized syllabi; (2) suitably challenge, engage, serve and communicate with students to encourage their participation and learning while maintaining mutual value and respect; (3) complete grade books, final grade sheets, learning assessments and final exam assessments in a timely manner; (4) maintain an electronic record of each student's progress; (5) complete as directed all end-of-term responsibilities, including submission of final grades, copies of exams, attendance records and all other designated materials to the Academic Office; (6) consult with the academic area chair or other appropriate college personnel on questions or issues involving course curricula, instructional strategies and college policies and procedures; and (7) respond to requests (e.g., from students, academic area chairs, department heads, committee chairs, Registrar's Office) in a timely and thorough manner.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in computer science or related field.
- Practical software development experience preferred.
- The successful applicant(s) must show evidence of ability to teach at the undergraduate level and possess excellent organizational and communication skills.
- Have a passionate commitment to Jesus Christ.
- Commitment to teaching in the context of a Christian liberal arts college is essential.

Beginning Date:

Fall 2022.

Candidates are requested to submit the following:

- Letter of application
- Current curriculum vitae
- Transcripts (unofficial accepted for initial review)
- A list of 3-5 references that can be contacted if necessary
- A statement of teaching philosophy

Send application materials via email to facultysearch@tabor.edu.

Closing Date:

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
