Hymn: "REDEEMED OF GOD"

Redeemed of God, come let us sing, In Praise to Jesus Christ, our King.
He is the Lord eternally; Live by His Word, walk faithfully.

Trust Him for He will be our guide; In ev'ry need in Him confide.
His grace and love will never fail, His blood and righteousness avail.

O Lord, we trust You, follow You. Your life is pure, Your Word is true.
In living, Lord, as You have willed, We are at peace, we are fulfilled.

O Holy Spirit, guide our ways; Teach us to serve, teach us to praise.
Beloved of God, come share His love, Empowered by the Lord above.

All glory be to Christ our Lord, Forever be His name adored.
In praise to Jesus Christ, our King, Redeemed of God, come let us sing.

Leading the graduates are student representatives, Caleb Kliewer and Mildred Sechrist

Please note that participation in today's commencement ceremony does not necessarily indicate degree completion. Upon degree completion, students will receive an official Tabor College diploma and the degree will be posted on the academic transcript. Names of graduates and honors earned are accurate as of noon May 19, 2022. We regret that later changes may not be reflected in the commencement program.

Academic Regalia

The procession of faculty in academic dress, a higher education tradition, draws its meaning from the medieval universities. The system of academic dress worn in the United States originated at Columbia University in 1895.

The three types of black gowns symbolize the bachelor's degree, the master's degree, and the doctor's degree. The master's gown is distinguished by the slit sleeve which allows part of the arm to be exposed. The doctoral gown is faced with velvet and three velvet bars trim each sleeve.

The color of the satin lining of the hood represents the institution which granted the highest degree. Hoods are bound in velvet of the discipline color of the degree: Arts, Letters, Humanities-white; Commerce, Accountancy, Business-drab; Education-light blue; Fine Arts-brown; Library Science-lemon; Music-pink; Nursing-apricot; Philosophy-dark blue; Physical Education-sage green; Public Health-salmon pink; Science-golden yellow; Theology-scarlet.
